WOMEN'S MUSEUM OF CALIFORNIA RECEIVES GRANT AWARD FROM CALIFORNIA HUMANITIES

SAN DIEGO, CALIF. — California Humanities has announced the recent round of Humanities For All Quick Grant awards. Women's Museum of California has been awarded $5,000 for its project entitled "Crafting Feminism: A Community Engagement Project".

The Humanities For All Quick Grant is a competitive grant program of California Humanities that supports locally-initiated public humanities projects that respond to the needs and interests of Californians, encourage greater public participation in humanities programming, particularly by new and/or underserved audiences, and promotes understanding and empathy among all our state's peoples in order to cultivate a thriving democracy.

The project will feature three community engagement activities: field trip workshops for 4th - grade through high school students; monthly artist-led workshops for adult learners; and monthly "Community Day" workshops for participants of all ages and abilities. The project will also conduct oral histories with California craftivist artists in order to preserve their stories and activism for future generations.

"These projects will bring the complexity and diversity of California to light in new ways that will engage Californians from every part of our state, and, will help us all understand each other better," said Julie Fry, President & CEO of California Humanities. "We congratulate the grantees whose projects will promote understanding and provide insight into a wide range of topics, issues, and experiences."
